Jesus Christ is the True God And Eternal Life

But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.
Daniel 12:4

Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:9-10

THE HYPOCRITES EXPOSED

(Updated on 01 01 2024)

1- Introduction

Dear friends and dear brethren, for some time now, God has chosen to reveal to us the true nature of these people who rule this world. All their actions, which from time immemorial have always been top secret are so much exposed nowadays that it has become very difficult for even the most naive person in the world, to be fooled by the type of ludicrous and outrageously ridiculous lies that these morons try to convey today.

These hypocrites have finally been exposed, so much so that if they were normal persons like you and me, they would simply stop their actions and other criminal projects in order to avoid being ridiculous. But as you can see, the word 'ridiculous' is not part of the dictionary of these people, another proof, if it was still needed, that these gangsters are not human beings. What are they then?

To answer this question, I found it necessary to share with you these few passages from the Bible.

Matthew 3:7 "But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?"

Matthew 12:34 "You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of."

Matthew 23:33 "You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?"

In the first passage quoted above, we see John the Baptist calling some of those who came to his baptism, brood of vipers. In the other two, it is Jesus who in turn calls some of his interlocutors, serpents, brood of vipers, etc. In reading these passages, we always wondered why Jesus or John the Baptist gave these kinds of names to some "men". We even asked if these statements, either of Jesus or of John the Baptist, were not offensive. But a careful study allowed us to understand that neither Jesus nor John the Baptist liked insulting anyone. They were spiritual men, and knew the true nature of these other so-called men. They knew that the latter were not normal men, but snakes. They are not of the human race, but races of vipers. It is thus by their name, that John the Baptist and Jesus called them.

Do not be surprised therefore by the coarseness of their crimes. Do not ask how people can sit and plan the massacre of tens and hundreds of thousands of people without the slightest concern, without the slightest remorse. They are not men. They are snakes. This is why even shame has no effect on them. Although all their hypocrisy, their falsehood and wickedness are exposed, and although they no longer have any argument to justify their madness, they continue anyway.

As in Afghanistan, as in Iraq, as in Ivory Coast, as in Libya, and in Syria, they are now in Mali, with the same grotesque lies like kids running out of ideas, as vulgar idiots running out of ingenuity. They plan and provoke wars, and then present themselves as messengers of peace, another way to make us believe that the only true firefighters are pyromaniacs. Hallelujah!

This text that I am about to propose to you is the transcription of a speech by a Belgian MP exasperated by the insensitivity of the gods of this world, these wicked people who are never tired of shedding innocent blood and destroying and plundering weaker and more vulnerable countries. Though alone against all other parliamentarians, Laurent Louis opposes the decision of his country Belgium, to participate in the war in Mali, for as he took the risk to demonstrate, this war was created by the same people who are now taking the lead to supposedly defend Mali. This Belgian MP has chosen, at great risk to his life, because we know how this mafia works, not to be silent, but to disparage the criminal works of these vampires who are never satisfied of blood, and denounce the re-colonization of Africa.

I really want to emphasize here that this parliamentarian is not a pastor or a bishop or a religious man preaching any gospel. He is simply a lover of justice and truth. I leave you to read the speech. Needless to say that after his speech nobody applauded. They will just gnash their teeth as usual, but will never renounce their folly.

If these demons were to renounce their folly, it would question the authority of the Bible. In other words, to expect repentance from these demons amounts to believe that the Bible is false. Doesn't the Bible tell us that it is impossible for a leopard to change its spots? Jeremiah 13:23

We encourage you to read this teaching. We also recommend the other very edifying teachings that can be found on the website www.mcreveil.org.

2- Beginning of the speech

Thank you Mr. Speaker,

Hon. Ministers, dear colleagues,

Belgium is indeed the land of surrealism. This morning we learned in the media that the Belgian army is incapable of fighting some extremist soldiers having radical Islamist beliefs existing within its own ranks and who cannot be dismissed by lack of sufficient legal means. However, at the same time, we decide to help France in its war "against terrorism" by providing logistical support for its operation in Mali. What would we not do in order to fight against terrorism outside our borders?

I just hope we would be careful not to send the famous Islamist Belgian soldiers for the anti-terrorist operation in Mali. I seem to be joking, but what is going on in the world today does not make me laugh at all.

It does not make me laugh because undoubtedly the leaders of Western countries are taking people for fools, with the help and support of the media which today is nothing other than a propaganda organ for the ruling powers. Around the world, military interventions and destabilization of regimes are becoming more frequent. Preventive war has become the rule.

And today, in the name of "democracy" or "fight against terrorism", our countries grant themselves the right to violate the sovereignty of independent States and overthrow legitimate leaders. We had the case of American wars of lies in Iraq and in Afghanistan. Then came Tunisia, Egypt, and Libya, where, thanks to your decisions, our country participated in the front line of crimes against humanity, to overthrow each time progressive and moderated regimes and replace them with Islamist regimes whose first intention, and as strange as it may seem, was to impose Sharia law. This is exactly what is currently happening in Syria where Belgium is shamefully funding the arming of the Islamist rebels who are trying to overthrow Bashar Al Assad.

Thus, in the midst of economic crisis, as more and more Belgians can no longer house themselves, feed, heat, and cure themselves, the Minister of Foreign Affairs has decided to offer the Syrian rebels 9 million euros! Of course, they will try to make us believe that this money will be used for humanitarian purposes: one more lie!

And as you can see, for months, our country is only participating in the establishment of Islamic regimes in North Africa and the Middle East. So, when they pretend to go to war just to fight against terrorism in Mali, well it's just funny: this is false! Under the appearance of good actions, we only intervene to defend financial interests in a complete neo-colonialist mindset. It is not really consistent to help France in Mali in the name of the fight against Islamist terrorism, whereas at the same time in Syria, we are backing the overthrow of Bashar al-Assad by Islamist rebels who wish to impose Sharia, as is already the case in Tunisia and Libya. You must stop lying to us and taking people for imbeciles.

The time has come instead to tell the truth. In arming Islamist rebels as the West had previously armed Osama bin Laden, that friend of the Americans before they turned against him, well western countries take the advantage to implant military bases in the newly conquered land while encouraging their domestic companies. Everything is therefore strategic. In Iraq, our American allies, have put their hands on the country's oil wealth. In Afghanistan, it was opium and drugs, always helpful to make lots of quick money. In Libya, Tunisia, Egypt or Syria the objective was, and still is to overthrow moderate governments and replace them with Islamic powers, which very quickly will become annoying and we will attack them shamelessly under the pretext of fight, this time again against terrorism or to protect Israel. Well then, the next targets are already known. In a few months, I bet that our eyes will turn to Algeria and finally to Iran.

It is a noble thing to go to war to liberate people of a foreign aggressor, but to go to war to defend the interests of the United States, to go to war to defend the interests of big companies like Areva, to go to war just to lay hold on gold mines, has nothing noble and makes our countries aggressor countries and thugs. Nobody dares to speak, but never mind, I will not keep silent, and I don't care if my struggle makes me look like an enemy of the system that violates human rights in the name of financial, geo-strategic and neo-colonialist interests.

It is a duty and pride for me to trample and denounce this regime and I sincerely apologize for the popular vocabulary used. To hell with all the so-called right-thinking people whether left, right or centre, who are now at the origin of our corrupt government and who will delight in ridiculing me. To hell with leaders who play with bombs like kids in a playground; to hell with those who claim to be democrats when they are only low-level criminals. I do not have much respect either for young journalists who have the audacity to present opposition groups as mentally retarded, whereas they know deeply that these opposition groups are perfectly right, finally I despise to the highest point, those who consider themselves as the kings of the world and who dictate their laws, because I am on the side of truth, the side of justice, the side of innocent victims of the dough at all costs. And it is for this reason that I have decided to clearly oppose this resolution which sends our country to support France in its neo-colonialist operation.

Since the beginning of this French operation, lying is organized; we are told that France only answered the call to help a Malian president. We do almost forget that this president has no legitimacy and was only put in place to ensure transition following the coup d'état in March 2012. Who supported the coup? Who was at the origin? For whom is this transitional president working? That is the first lie! French president François Hollande dares pretend to fight this war against the Jihadist threat; oh they threaten French territory in Europe! You see. But what an ugly lie! By taking this official argument while taking the opportunity to frighten the population, increasing the level of terrorist threat, in implementing the government public security measures, our leaders and the media prove that they are really audacious. How can we dare to consider such an argument while France and Belgium did not hesitate to arm and support the Jihadists in Libya and these same countries continue to support these Jihadists currently in Syria? This pretext is only used to hide strategic and economic objectives.

Our countries do not more fear inconsistency, for everything is done to hide it, but the inconsistency is still present. It is not tomorrow that a Malian citizen will carry out an attack in Europe. No! Unless they suddenly create one to better justify this military operation. September 11 was well created to justify the invasion, arbitrary arrest, torture and killings of innocent people, so, to create a Malian terrorist would not be too complicated for our bloodthirsty leaders.

Another pretext used these recent months to justify military operations, is the protection of human rights. Ah! This pretext is still used today to justify the war in Mali. "But yes! We have to act, otherwise the evil Islamists will impose Sharia law in Mali, stoning women and cutting off the hands of thugs." It is true that the intention is noble and salutary, that's for sure! But why, but why did our country participate in the accession to power in Tunisia and Libya of Islamists who have decided to apply the sharia in these countries that were not so long ago still modern and progressive? I invite you to ask young Tunisians who were at the base of the revolution in Tunisia if they are happy with their current situation. All this is hypocrisy!

The objective of this war in Mali is very clear, and since they do not want to talk about it, I will. The objective is to fight against China and to allow our American allies to maintain its presence in Africa and the Middle East. This is the reason for these neo-colonialists operations. And you see, when the military operation will finish, France of course will retain its military bases in Mali, these bases will serve the U.S. and at the same time, because it's always like that, Western companies will lay hands on lucrative contracts that will deprive the re-colonized country again of its raw materials and its wealth.

So let us be clear. The primary beneficiaries of this military operation will be the owners and shareholders of the French giant Areva which has been trying for years to get the licence to exploit a uranium mine at Falea, a town of 17,000 inhabitants located 350 km from Bamako. And I do not know why, but my gut tells me it will not take long for Areva to finally exploit that mine. I do not know, this is an impression I have. It is therefore out of question that I participate in this mining colonization, this colonization of modern times. And for those who doubt my arguments, I sincerely invite you to research about the wealth of Mali.

Mali is a major producer of gold, but recently she was designated as a country, which offers a world-class uranium mining environment! But as this is funny! A step closer to a war against Iran is obvious. For all these reasons and in order not to fall into the trap of lies that we are being told, I have decided not to support this intervention in Mali, I will vote against it. And in so doing, I will be consistent since I have never in the past supported our criminal intervention in Libya or Syria; I stand out as the only MP in this country who defends non-interference and the fight against obscure interests. I really think it is high time we put an end to our participation in the UN or NATO and get out of the European Union if this Europe, instead of being a token of peace, becomes a weapon of attack and destabilization of sovereign countries in the hands of financial interests and not humanists. Finally, I would like to encourage our government to remind president Hollande obligations resulting from the Geneva Convention in respect of prisoners of war.

Indeed, I was shocked to hear on TV from the mouth of the French president that his intention was to destroy the Islamic terrorists. I do not like the qualification used to name the opposition in Mali, -ah it is always convenient today to talk about Islamic terrorists-, to be used to circumvent the obligations of any democratic state in respecting the rights of war prisoners, we expect such a respect from the "homeland of human rights."

Finally and to conclude, let me emphasize how lightly we decide to go to war. Firstly, the government went to war without any authorization of parliament, it seems it has the right, it sends equipment, men to Mali, parliament subsequently reacts as it reacts today, eh as this institution consists of only one-third of the members, even less if you speak of Francophone MPs. It is therefore a lightweight culprit which really does not surprise me, coming from a Parliament of puppies, submitted to the dictates of political parties. Thank you [End of the speech].

3- Lessons to Learn

Those of you who still doubted the origin of these wars that devastate countries one after the other, have understood this time. And you who thought the world was run by normal men, you now know that it is not the case. The world is run by a strain of reptilians, demons in human form; snakes who only find pleasure in biting men to death, vampires that live only on human blood. That is why they massacred millions of people without qualms. This is also why they will never stop creating wars, no matter what you do, and no matter the virulence of the words that you use to denounce and expose them.

They themselves planned the events of September 11, 2001, killing thousands of people voluntarily in New York to use it as an excuse for the war in Afghanistan. You know the rest. Hundreds of thousands of people were killed, thousands more arrested and tortured for a crime they never committed. And right now, there are still innocent people of this farce who continue to be tortured, despite the overwhelming number of evidence that the events of September 11 were not a terrorist act, but an American set-up. That is democracy.

On the basis of a lie that has already been fully exposed today, they went on to destroy Iraq, killing hundreds of thousands of people, hanging Saddam Hussein, and decimating his entire family. And when they commit these horrible crimes, they appear in front of their TV cameras to boast thereof. Not a day goes by without attacks in Iraq, and thousands more continue to die following the same war. That is democracy.

They planned and funded a coup in Ivory Coast, which failed and turned into a so-called rebellion that lasted ten years. While waiting to succeed in their attempt to overthrow President Laurent Gbagbo, they multiplied massacres and targeted assassinations, such as that of the Franco-Canadian journalist Guy Andre Kieffer, in order to accuse President Gbagbo and put him in their prison of shame, if the coup against him were to fail. Because of the many prayers of Christians, this coup was not easy for them, and they were forced to resort to rigged elections to justify a war against Ivory Coast. Thousands of people were killed, and the killing continues even today. The assassination of President Gbagbo failed because of the prayers of many Children of God. Despite the fact that this lie is already fully exposed, President Gbagbo is still in prison; his wife and his son continue to be tortured in prison, with several members of his party and his government. Those who have found asylum in neighbouring countries, are being hunted down and either liquidated or extradited to Ivory Coast for torture. That is democracy.

The case of the Ivory Coast has been very well summarized in an article entitled: "The Gbagbo's Case: Springboard for African Revival", which we strongly recommend you to read. You will find it on the website www.mcreveil.org, under the title "African Revival".

Based on a lie already completely dismantled today, they went on to destroy Libya, killing tens of thousands of people, assassinating the Libyan leader and decimating his entire family. And those of his family and his government, who

"unfortunately" escaped death, will end their lives in prison. And as usual, after their heinous crimes, these faithful servants of Lucifer stand in front of their television cameras to boast thereof. This is the state of mind of these mentally ill who run the world. But in the meantime, that's democracy.

The war in Syria is ongoing; I will spare you the details of its gruesome story. Givers of lessons of democracy are openly financing and supporting terrorism in Syria, while "fighting" the same terrorism in Mali.

Let all these African idiots who support and cheer France in Mali, understand very well that it is France that organized and planned the occupation of northern Mali by Islamists. Know that this is a set-up that is being made and the purpose is to re-colonize Mali and Africa. A bunch of idiots claiming to be of the High Council of Malians in France, even invited themselves at the Élysée palace lately, ostensibly to thank François Hollande for "this great courageous decision" because "there were several French hostages in the hands of AQIM and terrorist groups". These naive fellows seem to ignore that terrorist states like France do not often hesitate to sacrifice some of their own citizens, when they can use it as propaganda, and when larger interests are at stake.

These clowns concluded their speech by saying that "true friends are known in times of trials" It's pitiful! These are Africans, well-educated from most of them, who believe to be over the moon for having been received at the Élysée, and very "moved", without any restraint wear a silly grin, painting this grim picture of docile slaves before their master. They are so moved that they blunder without realizing it. These vassals are certainly the only ones to ignore at the middle of the 21st century; that Africa's worst enemy is France. While a Belgian denounces the re-colonization of Mali, these puppets praise Hollande for this same re-colonization. Another way of telling the world that Africans will feel comfortable only in slavery. What do you want! That's the man of slavery. And there goes Africa!

The war in Mali is so much French that Africans are rather encouraged to help France. I had a good laugh the other day when I read this title on the BBC: "France's Fabius says Africa 'must' send troops to Mali." France, which is in war to defend one of its provinces called Mali, instead of appealing to Africans to give it a helping hand, speaks with authority and the same condescendence for which it is known. Fabius "orders" Africa to send troops to Mali, BBC captions. And you will see African presidents submit to this sordid injunction. Oh yes! This is also democracy.

Let me finish with a case that is almost never mentioned. The case of the DRC (former Zaire), we often forget the case of DRC where thousands of people continue to die, and thousands of women continue to be raped, away from the cameras of the media of lies which only serve the interests of these demon gods. If we talk too little about the case of the DRC, it is because they have made it a dormant war, a silent war that never ends, or at least that will only end the day this country has no mineral resources left. These wicked have created the DRC war and would do anything to perpetuate it in order to plunder without disturbance, and in the blood of millions of Congolese, the mineral resources of this country whose only misfortune is to have an extremely rich subsoil.

To prove to you that these people will never change, I give you just a few months. Once they finish with Mali, they will invade another country on the basis of the same childish and grotesque lies, despite everything we're saying. So goes the world under the rule of serpents, this brood of vipers which, while waiting to face the judgment of the living God one day, still have good days of massacre before them, and many tons of blood to collect.

Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love!

Invitation

Dear brothers and sisters,

If you have run away from fake churches and would like to know what to do, here are the two options available to you:

1- See if around you there are some other children of God who fear God and desire to live according to the Sound Doctrine. If you find any, feel free to join them.

2- If you do not find one and wish to join us, our doors are open to you. The only thing we will ask you to do is to first read all the Teachings that the Lord has given us, and which are on our website www.mcreveil.org, to reassure yourself that they are in conformity with the Bible. If you find them in accordance with the Bible, and are ready to submit to Jesus Christ, and live by the demands of His word, we will gladly welcome you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you!
