Jesus Christ is the True God And Eternal Life

But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.
Daniel 12:4

Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:9-10

BLASPHEMY AGAINST THE HOLY SPIRIT

"The Lord works out everything for his own ends, even the wicked for a day of disaster." Proverbs 16:4

1- Introduction

The Lord in Matthew 12:22-34 and in Mark 3:20-30, spoke to us about a sin which will not be forgiven to men, neither on earth nor at the last judgement. It is therefore a sin that will never be forgiven. This means that if anyone commits this sin, everything is over for him. There is and will be no possibility of repentance.

We know the great love of God, we know His great mercy. And in the Bible, the Lord on several occasions showed Himself to men as the merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. God is always ready to forgive men all things, provided that the latter decide to repent. And this same God, each time He wants to punish men, always takes into consideration their weakness and the limit of their capacities. The passage of Psalm 103 below, confirms that.

Psalm 103:1-3, 8-14 ¹Bless the Lord, O my soul! And all that is within me, bless His holy name! ²Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: ³Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases ... ⁸The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. ⁹He will not always strive with us, nor will He keep His anger forever. ¹⁰He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities. ¹¹For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; ¹²as far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. ¹³As a father pities his children, so the Lord pities those who fear Him. ¹⁴For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust."

If then God can forgive men all their sins, including crimes, murders, assassinations, rapes, and the other most abominable sins like homosexuality and all the other various follies of men, why can He show Himself so severe and so intransigent toward a particular sin, and what can this sin be? We will formulate some essential questions, the answers of which will help us to understand this subject.

2- Essential questions

What is Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit? Why is it different from other sins? In what way is it different from other sins? Why is this sin unforgivable when God knows that men sin so easily, and at times without even realizing it? Can we know people who have committed this sin? The examination of the passages below will help us unravel the mystery.

3- Matthew 12:22-25, 30-34

²²Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. ²³And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?" ²⁴Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons except by beelzebub, the ruler of the demons." ²⁵But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand."

³⁰He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad. ³¹Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. ³²Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come. ³³Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks."

4- Mark 3:22-25, 28-30

²²And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub," and, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out demons." ²³So He called them to Himself and said to them in parables: "How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand."

²⁸Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter; ²⁹but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin. ³⁰For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

5- What is blasphemy against the Holy Spirit?

It emerges from this teaching of Jesus Christ in Matthew 12 and Mark 3, that the Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is the fact of calling the Spirit of God, spirit of satan, or of attributing the work of the Holy Spirit to the work of demon. There is the Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which in appearance is a sin that each one can commit, even by error, and even without realizing it. Let me give you some examples:

With the proliferation of those great satanists that one calls by ignorance great men of God, and who walk around with their satanic power to deceive people by what they call miracles, one does no longer know how to distinguish a true miracle from a fake miracle. One is therefore tempted, as soon as someone speaks about miracles nowadays, to say without thinking that it is witchcraft, or that it is only another satan's manipulation. Yet in this shambles of miracles that are performed today, it is possible that there are some that come from God.

In the same way, as soon as you already know one of those great deceivers who make themselves to be called international evangelists or great prophets and so on, knowing very well their deeds, you can no longer expect anything good from them. If you hear that they have performed some miracles, you will not hesitate to say that it is a miracle performed by satan. Yet nothing proves that each miracle performed by those people, comes from satan. Some of those miracles and healings, may come from God, who in order to answer His Children, can use even those agents of satan.

Do not forget that God said in His word that the fact of performing a miracle by His name or in His name, does not make the one who performs that miracle, a child of God or a servant of God. Matthew 7:21-23 ²¹Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven. ²²Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' ²³Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from Me, you evildoers!'"

God does what He wants, and can use whoever He wants to fulfil His purpose. Having said that, it would be risky to conclude that all the miracles and healings performed by the agents of satan, are fake miracles. Yet, nowadays, we draw such conclusion very easily due to the confusion that the agents of satan are sowing. As you would realize, very few true Christians still give credence to all these miracles performed by fake preachers. Therefore, one can wonder if it is possible to still find Christians who have not yet fallen into this sin of Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit.

For if the simple fact of attributing by mistake or by ignorance, a work of the Holy Spirit to demons as we have just studied meant blaspheming against the Holy Spirit, this sin would therefore be a sin that almost all of us have already committed. And when you know that this sin will never be forgiven, it is necessary to wonder why the Lord, who only intends to save us, and who has even chosen to sacrifice Himself for us, can at the same time set such a great trap for us. Allowing a sin that one can commit so easily, and even sometimes without realizing it, to be a sin that will never be forgiven, is a very great trap.

But as you already know, the Lord Jesus Christ loves us with an unfailing love, an undeniable love, and an unreserved love. If He wanted to condemn us, He would not need to set any trap for us to do so. As it is, He is answerable to nobody. Hence, you understand more easily that the definition of the Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit such as given above hides something. What is it all about?

What makes the Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit a very special sin is the degree of affront which accompanies this sin, it is the knowledge of the things of God by those who commit this sin, and their deliberate will to harm. The Pharisees and scribes, by saying that Jesus was casting out demons by beelzebub, the ruler of the demons, knew very well that Jesus was not casting out demons by beelzebub. They were therefore not ignorant, and they had no confusion about the person of Jesus, or about the works of Jesus, whereas today we have serious doubts about the person and works of some of the so-called men of God. It was driven by wickedness and jealousy, and in order to turn people away from God, that these wicked were telling this lie.

They knew very well that Jesus was the Son of God; they also knew very well that Jesus was casting out demons by the power of God. But in their jealousy, they were not happy to see Jesus freeing people whom satan was holding captive in lies and slavery. They therefore had to counter-attack, they had to do everything to discourage those people who recognized in Jesus the Son of God, and who followed Him. This is what was hidden behind their acts.

6- Why is the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit different from other sins?

Unlike other sins, the Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, neither in this life, nor on the day of the great Judgment. This means that anyone who commits this sin is condemned to Hell, no matter what kind of repentance he chooses to do afterwards. Many so-called Christians, who fill churches nowadays, including so-called servants of God, are people who have already blasphemed against the Holy Spirit, and who are now only waiting for the day they will find themselves in Hell.

7- In what way is the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit different from other sins?

Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is different from other sins in that it is never committed by mistake, by ignorance, by weakness, or unconsciously. This sin is the result of a deliberate, conscious, voluntary, and premeditated choice. Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is therefore not the mere fact of calling the Spirit of God spirit of satan, or of attributing a work of the Holy Spirit to a demon, but it is the fact of doing it knowingly and voluntarily, with the intention of turning people away from God. You will understand more easily now that only the children of satan can commit this sin. No true child of God can commit this sin. You will never see a true Child of God telling lies to turn people away from God. You will never see one.

8- Why is this sin unforgivable?

Know, beloved, that forgiveness is reserved for Men, and not for satan and his demons. We have just demonstrated that the Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is a sin that can only be committed by demons. Since demons are already condemned for eternity, forgiveness is no longer necessary for them. Keep in mind, however, that the act of deliberately turning someone away from the way of God is a crime that has never been forgiven, and God has always punished this sin very severely, even in the Old Covenant, as we can read in the following passages:

Deuteronomy 13:1-5 ¹If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, ²and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods' - which you have not known - 'and let us serve them,' ³you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the Lord your God is testing you to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴You shall walk after the Lord your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice, and you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him. ⁵But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the Lord your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst."

Deuteronomy 13:6-11 ⁶If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers, ⁷"of the gods of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth, ⁸"you shall not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him; ⁹"but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. ¹⁰"And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹¹"So all Israel shall hear and fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you."

As we have just read, in the Old Covenant the Lord demanded that these demons be cast into Hell without delay, without wasting time. In the New Covenant, we must no longer stone these demons. But God's eternal sentence on them remains. And while waiting for the eternal judgment of God against them, not only does the Lord ask us not to pray for these demons, as we read in 1John 5:16, but he also asks us not to even admit them into our homes, as you can read in the passage below:

2John 7-11 ⁷"For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. ⁸Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward. ⁹Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him; ¹¹for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds."

9- Can we know people who have committed this sin?

Let us examine together this passage of 1John 5:16, which says, "If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that he should pray about that."

God asks us to pray for every brother who commits a normal sin, that is, a forgivable sin, which the Bible describes as a sin that does not lead to death. This same God asks us not to pray for any individual who commits abnormal sin, that is, unforgivable sin, which the Bible describes as sin that leads to death. God cannot give us such instructions if we will not be able to distinguish the sin that leads to death from the sin that does not lead to death. So we can very well know all those people who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit. As soon as we know what Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is, it becomes very easy to know those who have already committed this sin, and those who are committing it.

Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is therefore not an easy sin to commit, and it is not a sin that true Children of God, who have the right to God's kingdom, and who, even a few minutes before death, can still repent, can commit. It is therefore a sin that only children of satan, that is weeds, that is demons, can commit. That is why this sin will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. God will never allow us to commit such a great sin unintentionally, and unknowingly. Hallelujah!

Know therefore beloved, that all these agents of satan who deliberately and voluntarily call me demon or sorcerer, or servant of satan, just to try to turn people away from the way of God, are blaspheming against the Holy Spirit. If they were ignorant, God would take into account their ignorance, and would grant them an opportunity for repentance. But since it is filled with hatred, jealousy, and wickedness, that they do this, with the aim of deceiving and turning people away from the way of God, they will understand in the next days that they were attacking God, and not me.

Therefore, if you see all these people who have been with me, who have followed me, who have had time to appreciate the wisdom and the goodness of God, and who are now leading people astray by lies that they cannot justify, understand that they are demons who have completed their ministry behind me, as their brother Judas had completed his behind Jesus. They are filling up the measure of their sins, while awaiting the eternal punishment.

"⁶⁴Pay them back what they deserve, O Lord, for what their hands have done. ⁶⁵Put a veil over their hearts, and may your curse be on them! ⁶⁶Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of the Lord." Lamentations 3:64-66.

10- Testimonies

"I speak the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience confirms it in the Holy Spirit." Romans 9:1

Let me give you some testimonies of demons in flesh who have already committed the sin of Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, or who are committing it.

10.1- First testimony

I was to give a series of seminars in several countries successively. When I started the seminar in the first country, the leader of the pastors of the second country where I was to go had come to attend the conference in the first country. He was therefore part of the group of pastors who received me in the first country. We spent some unforgettable moments together before God. These pastors realized that although they had been in the ministry as pastors for many years, they were ignorant of the word of God. The message I was bringing turned everything they had ever taught their followers upside down.

This senior pastor, responsible for all the pastors of the second country, which was to host the seminars, realized well the effects that my teachings were to have, first on the pastors of his country, then on all their faithful. He began to panic, and to think of what he could do to prevent the truth from coming to his country. He did not know that the man of God who was coming was different from all those they had always invited. So he found himself faced with a situation that he had not expected, and that none of them had envisaged, a situation that had to be handled with care, at the risk of turning it into a scandal whose effects would go beyond the borders of their country.

The equation was complicated. The only real solution that could solve this equation, which was to prevent the sound doctrine from coming to his country, was to find a strategy to cancel the seminars in his country. But this solution was not possible, since he was not the only pastor involved in organizing these seminars. It was the collective of almost all the senior pastors in the country. It was not very easy to convince all these pastors to cancel the seminars they had been waiting for, and for which they had invested a lot of their time, in the organization and in the preparation. And even if all these pastors could be corrupted to accept that the seminars be cancelled, it was still necessary to have time to discuss it with them, and to convince them.

But the time was very short. As soon as I left the first country, the seminars were to start in the second country the following day. So there was no break between the countries. And this senior pastor had to travel with me to his country. There was not even the possibility for him to return before me to go and pollute the other pastors. The ideal solution, which consisted in finding a strategy to cancel purely and simply the seminars of his country, was thus impossible.

As this ideal solution could not be adopted, he thought of something a little more daring. When we finished the seminar in the first country, we went to the second country, led by this senior pastor. When we arrived in his country, he had very little time to plan his scheme. What he found easy to do was to bribe all the interpreters who were to interpret my messages during the seminars. Since I was teaching in a language and the messages were being interpreted in the language of that country, what this great pastor inspired by satan found better to do, was to ask those who were to interpret the messages, to rather say what they wanted to the crowd that was to listen to me, and not what I would say.

When we arrived in his country, he and those who were to welcome me received me, and accompanied me to the place they had reserved for me. As soon as they left me, he immediately called a meeting with the people of the organising team, to give them a quick account of what he had learned in the first country, and alerted them to the danger they were all putting themselves in as pastors, of letting my raw, undiluted message be given to the faithful. It was therefore in the night that they adopted their ultimate solution of corrupting the interpreters.

It was a very complicated exercise, and the mess we experienced was spectacular. Since among the crowd there were many people who mastered the language I was teaching with, it was difficult for them to let the opposite of the message I was teaching be given to the crowd. And since people did not know that this pastor had made these satanic arrangements with the interpreters, the other faithful in the room found themselves each time correcting the interpretation of the message I was giving. They thought the interpreter was not up to the task, and tried to help him.

But because the interpretation errors kept coming back, it created a very big mess. At one point, people asked that the interpreter be changed. This was done. The second interpreter, who was also in on it, did not know how to successfully continue sabotaging the message of truth. Every time he tried to sabotage, he was quickly corrected by the brethren in the crowd. He himself realized that their solution could not succeed, and was finally forced to continue the interpretation in the correct manner.

It is after this first day of seminars, that one of the pastors approached me discreetly, to reveal to me that what had happened during this first day of seminars, was a satanic set up that the Lord had foiled. It is therefore one of them who, very satisfied to hear the truth that I had taught, came to divulge to me this satanic secret that I am sharing with you. So, dear brethren, that is what many pastors are doing today. When they teach lies, it is not out of ignorance. It is a choice they have made to teach the gospel of satan.

10.2- Second testimony

I was to give a series of seminars in several cities in one country. When I started the seminar in the first city, several pastors from the other cities in which the seminars were planned, had come to follow the seminar in the first city. As soon as I started the teachings, many of them realized that the message I was carrying was nothing like the madness they often swim in in their churches. While some rejoiced to hear the wonders of God, others gnashed their teeth. There were two among them who were constantly in the background, pondering what to do about the whole holding of my programme in their country, as several cities were on the programme.

One of these pastors chose to leave the seminary in the first city one day before the end, to return in a hurry. He had created a pretext to justify his abrupt and unannounced return. Although we found the reasons he gave for his return to be a bit zany, we sympathized and let him return. What we did not know was the mission that this demon had assigned to himself. He had quickly returned to alert the most senior pastors, those who led the biggest churches of this country. He had thus asked for an urgent meeting with them, during which he firmly warned them against the truth that I was teaching, and advised them to do everything to prevent me from teaching in other cities.

But as Jesus Christ remains the only Master, and always has the last word, He confounded the advice of this snake, and made these senior pastors not espouse his opinion. So I continued with the seminars as it was planned, until the day I arrived in the big city, which grouped the churches of those senior pastors that dominated the whole country. When I started the seminar in that city, these senior and powerful pastors then understood why their serpent colleague had organized an emergency meeting to warn them. Unfortunately for them it was too late, because the faithful had already followed my first teachings, and it had become impossible to prevent them from following the others. In order not to go out of our subject, I could tell you the continuation of this comedy in another testimony instead, if God allows it.

These other senior and powerful pastors of satan then admitted that their demon colleague was right, but it was too late unfortunately for them, and very fortunately for the Children of God, because the message of God had already passed. All other attempts to block the truth proved to be fruitless, to the glory of Jesus Christ the only true God. Hallelujah!

Sometime later, God struck this zealous and audacious demon who had taken upon himself the heavy responsibility of wanting to block the revival of God in a whole country. When the Lord smote this demon, his fellow demon who was with him at the seminar of the very first city, declared to console himself and the other hypocrites, that "God gave, and God has taken away, may His name be glorified." While the zealous demon was burning in Hell, his fellow demon was telling anyone who would listen to him that God gave and God has taken away.

10.3- Third testimony

I had to go to a country for seminars. A witch in that country, who had never seen me, and who had never even listened to me, launched a great campaign of sabotage against me, and asked people not to attend the seminars. When asked why she was asking people to stay away from the seminars I was to give, she said that I teach that men can marry each other, in other words, that I teach same-sex marriage. She had thus succeeded in misleading some people, but those who were a little more vigilant chose not to believe the blasphemy of this witch without checking. So they asked her some questions.

They asked this witch if she had ever seen me. The witch said no. They asked her if she had ever listened to my teachings, the witch again said no. They then asked her on what basis she could justify what she was saying. She said that she had learned this from other people. These people told her that if she had no proof of what she was saying, they would come and listen for themselves, and make their decisions. So they came to the seminars, and their surprises were great. These are the people who shared this testimony with us.

When after the seminar some of those whom the witch had tried in vain to lead astray, went to her to give her the report of the seminar, this witch, all ashamed, pretended to repent, and joined us in the doctrine of Christ. But her works soon came to the surface, and we finally drove her out from among us.

10.4- Fourth testimony

Several sorcerers whom we have chased out of the Church, instead of repenting, have started blaspheming against the Holy Spirit. Each one goes about it in his own way, with his own methods. They compete with each other in ingenuity. I will give you some examples:

First Example: There are sorcerers who, when they were still in our midst and pretended to be Children of God, had put their telephone numbers on the teachings that we distribute in the form of newsletter. It is by these numbers that all those who wished to reach us in their country, would contact us. When we drove these wizards out of the Church, the newsletters with their numbers on them continued to circulate. People who came across these newsletters, naturally called these numbers, but reached those wizards who had already been chased out of the Church. These sorcerers therefore received all those who were in search of sound doctrine, but hid from telling them that they had already been chased out of the Church. They taught satanic doctrine to these Christians, and voluntarily and consciously turned them away from the way of God.

Some of these Christians, with time, at the sight of all the abomination that was practiced in the midst of these sorcerers, began to wonder if they were really in the sound doctrine. Those whom the sorcerers had already succeeded in initiating into witchcraft, were unfortunately lost. But those who could not be initiated, fled from these satanic environments. Some stayed at home, others became discouraged. There are even some who have returned to the former false churches, saying to themselves that if the sound doctrine is what they saw in the midst of these sorcerers, then there is no difference between what they believed to be the sound doctrine, and the false churches they were fleeing from. These poor innocent people do not know that they have found themselves in witchcraft, and not in sound doctrine.

This is how these sorcerers rejected the opportunity of repentance that the Lord had granted them, and chose blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. These wicked people spend their time turning away poor souls who are seeking salvation in Jesus Christ. They initiate these innocent people into witchcraft, destroy their lives, and delight in it. The tragedy is that they do all this deliberately and consciously. Do you think God will forgive them for this degree of wilful, conscious, and premeditated wickedness? The answer is NO. This helps you better understand the sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, and why the Lord has declared that this sin will never be forgiven.

Second Example: There is another sorcerer who has given himself the mission, on the one hand, to turn away all the Christians he had contact with when he was still in the Church, and on the other hand, to gather all the other sorcerers that we have chased away from the assemblies, to form a large group of sorcerers, in order to better fight against God. And he is fulfilling his ministry well, to the greatest satisfaction of his master and father the devil. And all these sorcerers have thrown themselves loudly into blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, and they give the impression, to whoever wants to believe them, that they are serving God. It is all the same sad to see how people go to Hell while dancing. If God permits, I will give you more details concerning each of these cases, in a future testimony.

Third Example: This is what other sorcerers have done to lead astray the maximum number of people who were seeking God. Since they knew that Christians who were seeking the truth recognized our teachings by the headings of our newsletters, these demons made false teachings, and put them on papers bearing our headings. All those who came across these satanic teachings, therefore, firmly believed that they were our teachings. And only God knows the havoc that these demons have created by this method inspired from the world of darkness.

Fourth Example: Still other sorcerers, in order to turn people away from the path of truth, had shown themselves to be a little more cunning. They chose not to use our letterheads to spread their satanic gospel, but rather to imitate everything we do. They had vowed to copy our modus operandi, and thus had succeeded in deceiving the vigilance of the unwary. They had made a newsletter layout not very different from ours, started to write their newsletters using the same model as we do. They copy my way of writing and my style, and make the effort to write like me, to the point where anyone who is not very vigilant can mistake the venom of these snakes for my teachings. They have even made a website like ours, and hold meetings modelled on ours, etc. And when these demons do this, they say in their proud countenance that God does not punish, that there is no God. They have finally convinced themselves that the word of God is false. Psalm 10:4.

These demons are constantly on our website, watching for anything new, in order to copy. They will have work to do in the next few days, because we are going to change our website. I have decided to change the way I make the teachings available to God's people on the website. As soon as they realize this, they will try to do the same. They will copy this new configuration. To prove to everyone that all their inspiration is only limited to copy-and-paste, they will not be ashamed in the next few weeks, to change all the old copy-and-paste, for a new copy-and-paste of my new work method. This is what their master satan does. He spends his time copying what God has done. Do not forget that satan is specialized in imitating what God does.

When I asked one of these demons why they could do nothing but copy everything I do, he insolently told me that I was a role model, and that he did not see why I should find it abnormal that people copy me, and told me arrogantly that they will always copy me. So this is how these agents of Hell are trying to mess up God's work, in order to turn as many people as possible away from the true Gospel. They absolutely want to deserve the punishment that awaits them in Hell for eternity.

It is when you understand the extreme wickedness hidden behind this sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, and the havoc that this sin causes in the camp of God, that you understand why Jesus Christ the True God swore that this sin will not be forgiven either in this age or in the age to come. And if you believe that the word of God is true, know that what Jesus Christ said will happen!

10.5- Fifth testimony

Several small agents of satan have been sent by satan to pollute social networks. They all give the impression of loving God. They use the name of Jesus to deceive the ignorant. Several of these agents of satan use our teachings as baits, to attract all those who seek the truth. They then make the effort to turn all ignorant Christians away from the path of truth, through cunning and other techniques that they have been taught in the world of darkness.

These demons take our teachings, read them line by line, and remove from the teachings all references that direct readers to our website. They remove all the places where the address www.mcreveil.org is mentioned in the teaching. And wherever we have put our address to help readers find us in case of need, these demons remove our address, and replace it with their own address, in order to lead astray all those who seek the truth. We have exposed some of these demons in the teaching entitled "Discernment" which you will find at www.mcreveil.org.

One of these demons contact details are:

WhatsApp: 0022367501343

Facebook profile: "Élie Elie"

Address: <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=100056852889863>.

The second has several Facebook pages, including this one:

<https://www.facebook.com/DNG-100568642178253/>

The third demon is called Romeo Sewanou, and his contact details are:
Whatsapp: +22962936838
Facebook addresses: <https://www.facebook.com/sewarom1> and <https://www.facebook.com/romeo.sewanou>
WhatsApp groups: Camp de vérité N°1, Camp de vérité N°2, N°3, N°4, etc.

You will read the details about these demons in the teaching on Discernment.

Unfortunately, there are many of these agents of Hell, sent from the world of darkness to invade social networks, and to turn away from the path of God, people who seek salvation. These demons therefore spend their time blaspheming against the Holy Spirit, in order to heap up their sins to the limit. You now understand that these demons have voluntarily chosen Hell, it is up to you to flee from them. You must not only flee from them, you must also denounce them, in order to stop their satanic mission against Children of God, and save some of those who fall into their traps.

Some of these little demons have created groups on different social media, in which they forbid people to read our teachings, and threaten to delist from these groups anyone who dares to go to the website www.mcreveil.org. And all those who did not take these threats seriously and thought it was a joke, were kicked out of these groups, because they dared to visit the website mcreveil.org. This is how demons work. They pretend to be born again Christians, and claim to be serving Jesus Christ. Know now that they are missionaries of the world of darkness. That is why they blaspheme against the Holy Spirit, without being embarrassed. They know that they come from Hell, and that they will only return to Hell. Do not imitate them, and do not follow them. Denounce these demons so that other innocent people who are in their satanic groups will also be freed.

If you see a so-called born again Christian or a so-called servant of God forbidding you from reading the teachings that are on the website mcreveil.org, know that you are dealing with demons. God did not send any of these serpents to dictate to you what you should read and what you should not read. Each of you has the ability to recognize a teaching based on truth. If the teachings that are on the website mcreveil.org are true, you will know how to recognize it. And if they are false, you will know it too. It is therefore not for the demons to read them before giving you an account of them. Do no longer let the agents of Hell turn you away from the truth.

11- Conclusion

To conclude this teaching, I would like to launch a solemn appeal to all those who hope to obtain from God any forgiveness of their sins. All of you Christians who are not firm enough in your faith and who are still wavering, and you sorcerers who fight God in spite of God's outstretched hand towards you, and in spite of the different calls to repentance that are regularly launched, if you still intend to escape Hell, if you still dream of obtaining from God the forgiveness of your sins, if you hope to see God judge your case with a little flexibility at the time of the last judgement, make all your efforts not to cross the red line, which is the sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. Remember that as long as you have not yet committed this sin, the entrance to Heaven is still possible for you, forgiveness with God can still be granted to you. Therefore, be careful not to close the door of Heaven before you, be careful not to seal your place in Hell.

Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that [you] may not perish? Jonah 3:9.

Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love!

Invitation

Dear brothers and sisters,

If you have run away from fake churches and would like to know what to do, here are the two options available to you:

1- See if around you there are some other children of God who fear God and desire to live according to the Sound Doctrine. If you find any, feel free to join them.

2- If you do not find one and wish to join us, our doors are open to you. The only thing we will ask you to do is to first read all the Teachings that the Lord has given us, and which are on our website www.mcreveil.org, to reassure yourself that they are in conformity with the Bible. If you find them in accordance with the Bible, and are ready to submit to Jesus Christ, and live by the demands of His word, we will gladly welcome you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you!
